

ACSI MEMBER SCHOOLS

STRONGER TOGETHER

Nearly 5 million U.S. students, or about 10 percent of all, attend private schools.

Association of Christian Schools International is the largest Protestant Christian education association in the world.

Nearly 34,000 U.S. schools, or about 25 percent of all, are private schools.

since 1978

ACSI has been strengthening Christian schools and equipping Christian educators since 1978.

5.5 million children

ACSI member schools serve 5.5 million children globally.

108 countries

ACSI has member schools in 108 countries.

30 offices

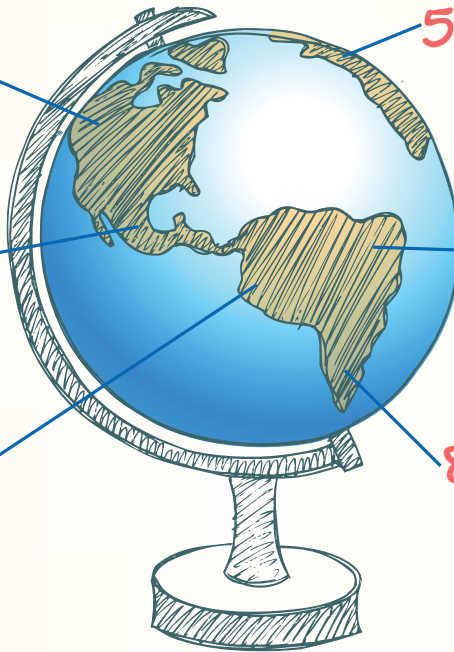

ACSI has 30 offices around the world.

24,000 schools

ACSI supports nearly 24,000 member schools.

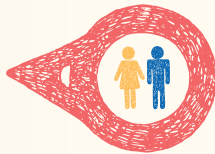

80,000 teachers

ACSI has certified nearly 80,000 teachers.

Safety

Private vs. Public Schools

Public school students report gang activity in their schools nearly ten times as often as private school students.

Public school students are over twice as likely to experience criminal activity against them at school.

Public school students are over twice as likely to fear being attacked or harmed at school.

Graduate Preparedness

for College Coursework

A greater percentage of ACT-tested graduates of private schools are prepared for college coursework.

Professional Development

Opportunities for ACSI Educators

ACSI  NEXUS

is a two-day live event that brings more than 11,000 educators together nationwide.

ACSI  NEXUS ^{premium}

provides professional communities of practice and over 500 hours of professional development video content.